

Henning Mediation & Arbitration Service, Inc.

Hon. Dorothy Toth Beasley

EDUCATION:

- B.A., St. Lawrence University (1959)
- L.L.B., American University Washington College of Law (1964)
- L.L.M., (Judicial Process), University of Virginia School of Law (1984)
- L.L.M., (International Law), Emory University School of Law (2008)

BAR ADMISSION:

- District of Columbia (1964)
- Virginia (1965)
- Georgia (1969)

LEGAL EMPLOYMENT & EXPERIENCE:

- Senior Judge, Court of Appeals of Georgia (1984-1999)
- Chief Judge, Court of Appeals of Georgia (1995-1996)
- Four Years, Assistant Attorney General of Georgia
- 3½ years, Assistant United States Attorney, Northern District of Georgia
- Judge, State Court of Fulton County
- Judge, State Court of Fulton County
- Associate, Arlington, Virginia law firm
- Law/Clerk, Circuit Court of Arlington, Virginia

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

- State Bar of Georgia
- International Association of Women Judges
- American Law Institute
- Board of Visitors, Georgia State University College of Law
- Atlanta Bar Association
- Dean's Advisory Council, American University Washington College of Law
- Georgia Association for Women Lawyers
- ABA Central Europe and Eurasia Law Initiative Board of Advisors

MEDIATION/ARBITRATION TRAINING:

- 40 hours Civil Mediation course, National Judicial College
- 20 hours Mediation and Conflict Skills, Justice Center of Atlanta, Inc.

AREAS OF EXPERIENCE:

All the areas of civil litigation which come before the Court of Appeals of Georgia, including but not limited to:

- Personal Injury
- Product Liability
- Trucking
- Medical and Legal Malpractice
- Workers Compensation
- Employment
- Banking
- Consumer Law
- Insurance
- Contract
- Condemnation
- Business
- Construction
- Premises Liability
- Environment
- Real Estate
- Civil Rights