

Henning Mediation & Arbitration Service, Inc.

Best Practices for Mediation & Arbitration

This one-hour presentation will discuss how lawyers may be most effective and professional as advocates in mediation and arbitration. The points in this discussion are fleshed out with examples of mediations and arbitrations in the context of construction and commercial disputes in which the presenter has been involved. Practice pointers concerning professional and ethical practices which should characterize the conduct of advocates will be discussed. Program materials will be provided to each person attending.
