henningmediation.com/wright

With over 36 years of experience in the insurance and reinsurance sectors, Nigel Wright has consistently demonstrated his leadership, strategic insight, and deep expertise across multiple roles in the industry. Throughout his career, Nigel has held senior leadership positions at two prominent international insurance carriers, where he was frequently the ultimate decision-maker, overseeing complex, high-exposure claims. In addition, he has served as a senior partner at two AM100 law firms, managing significant multi-jurisdictional and international litigation and arbitration matters, with a particular focus on coverage disputes. Nigel's vast experience spans a wide array of claims, including specialty, non-marine, and multi-national exposures. His comprehensive understanding of the industry is further underscored by his qualifications as a New York and Georgia attorney, UK solicitor, mediator, arbitrator, and AHLA Arbitrator. Renowned for his impartiality, unwavering work ethic, and meticulous approach to claims resolution, Nigel is a sought-after consultant and expert in both litigation and alternative dispute resolution processes.

In addition to his legal expertise, Nigel has a long-standing commitment to sharing his knowledge through teaching, mentoring, and professional development. His work as an adjunct professor in Alternative Dispute Resolution at Emory Law School reflects his passion for education and his desire to foster the next generation of legal professionals. He also dedicates his time to volunteer efforts, including his involvement with Habitat for Humanity and Fur Kids, showcasing his belief in giving back to the community.
